

FAITH & FAMILIES

Wes Eades

Sundays Mornings
Parish Hall
10:10 - 10:55

The Spirituality of Parenting

Wes will be back with us during the Sunday morning Christian Formation hour@10:10 a.m. to discuss the trials and travails of raising kids. Those of you who've attended these conversations before already know that Wes mixes humor, information, and real life experiences to encourage and challenge parents.

Wes sees parenting as a spiritual discipline that challenges us to be "Christ-like" in ways that no other experience can achieve. He believes that we can have a profound effect on the spiritual vitality of our children, but only if we are paying attention to our own faith journeys.

This class will meet on Sunday mornings beginning September 21 – December 18, 2011. Wes recommends that you purchase Parenting with Love and Logic by Foster Cline and Jim Fay. Copies will be available for purchase.

About Wes

Has been a pastoral counselor since 1989 after he completed his doctoral work in the Psychology of Religion. He is a Licensed Professional Counselor and Marriage and Family therapist. He and his wife, Holly, have three children: Abigail, Benjamin and Olivia.